

Bingo winner set for dream wedding

A Dunfermline woman will get her dream wedding after scooping over £103,000 in the Super Sunday Play-offs at Carlton Bingo in Fife.

On Sunday afternoon (30th March) the local woman, who has only been playing bingo for a short time, won the National Prize and a share of the Platinum Jackpot on the National Bingo game netting a total of £103, 559.

She said:

“I only started playing recently after my mum had a big win at Carlton.”

“This will allow me to have the family wedding that we couldn’t previously afford.”

Christine Wright, Manager, Carlton Bingo Fife said:

“The atmosphere in the venue was electric while we were waiting for the results to be announced and everyone got a huge thrill when the winner was declared in our club.

“The fact that it means wedding bells can now chime just adds an extra sparkle to another fabulous big winner in Fife.
